The lessor/agent gives this notice to the tenant/s when they want them to vacate the property by a certain date.

Information about tenants' rights and obligations are included in the tenancy agreement.

There may be one of several reasons (grounds) for giving the notice. If the tenant/s dispute the reason given, they should try to resolve the matter with the lessor/agent first. If agreement cannot be reached, the RTA's dispute resolution service may be able to assist – phone 1300 366 311.

If the tenant/s do not leave the property by the date nominated in item 6, the lessor/agent may apply directly to the Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal (QCAT) for a termination order without further notice to the tenant.

If QCAT makes a termination order, it must also make an order for possession of the property in the lessor's favour.

Tenants cannot be evicted without an order for possession of the property.

When serving notices by post, the sender must allow time for the mail to arrive when working out notice periods.
